This woman in the supermarket is telling me she loves animals. I said that's great now live your values and go vegan. She says being vegan isn't natural. I said that's a myth, there are millions of vegans world wide that prove this to be untrue. She says I don't care what you say, it's unnatural! While she was walking away, I started thinking she must really care about being natural with her fake boobs, color contacts and bottles of soda in her shopping cart

Skye VeganGoddess Watco Wow, the irony! I laughed and had to read this post to my husband! well, I for one am thankful that people like you broach the subject at grocery stores, even if people want to bury their head in their fake boobs....errr...I mean the sand!

Abortia McTavish Sometimes a woman gets cancer and has her breast tissue removed. Stop hating on implants. Men have no idea what it's like to feel like less of a woman.

Andrew MacGregor She sounds like a dirty, bottom feeding, trash bag whore... And now that I'm done pointing out her good quality'... I'll be honest, I don't much care for her outlook on life... There, I said it

Freddy Thomson Mathematics and linguistics : when an unnatural person says something is unnatural, it is natural . (two negations make an affirmation). And perhaps the woman, with her silicon valley, has right : being empathetic is unnatural.

Skye VeganGoddess Watco I agree, Abortia, If a woman wants or needs implants she should have that choice without ridicule...but she shouldn't then say veganism isn't natural when clearly her lifestyle isn't based on "natural".

Denise Verrastro Piston Her reaction is a defense mechanism. She knows if she truly thinks about the animals and how they are treated she will have to make some changes in her life. That's very hard
