Five years ago today, I made one of the best decisions of my life. I became vegan. At the time I only knew a few vegans through Facebook. Had you asked me then if I thought a vegan world was possible, I probably would have told you it was many generations away. Becoming an activist and meeting so many wonderful, dedicated people has changed my opinion. I now believe it may even happen in my lifetime. The time for Animal Liberation is near. I hope to someday celebrate that moment with all of you!
